I've Failed You

The colors of my summer dress have bled out, faded to grey I wear it like a scarlet letter, I cannot wipe away this stain Can't you see that I've failed you Look how I've failed you I've failed you Look how I've failed you Ugly and telling, I rub my hands but still, the dirt remains Just let me lie here, For its the fucking bed I made. Can't you see that I've failed you Look how I've failed you I've failed you Look how I've failed you I've failed you Look how I've failed you I've failed you Look how I've failed you
