

Jonny

Kittie

What does he tell me this time?
We're just whores on a fucking assembly line
Believe me I was there
Take what I want and get the fuck out of here
Lets raise the wall
Somebody
To raise the wall
Suck me
Jonny's been a very bad boy
Jonny's been a very bad boy
Jonny's been a very bad boy
Jonny's been a very bad
This door is so high
My life is oblivious to you and the sun hurts my eyes
But remember you were not going to raise the wall
Stop me
To raise the wall
Ooh and you look at me
See through me
I am nothing to you
You look at me
See through me
I am nothing to you
What does it want to be?
You know you love me
You want to ruin me
I take this end
Destroy this in me but if you want someone...
One will come down fighting for you!
