

Bonaparte's Retreat

Kitty Wells

Met the one I loved in a town way down in Dixie
Neath the stars above he was the sweetest man I ever did see
So he took his in my arms and told me of my many charms
He kissed me while the fiddles played the Bonaparte's Retreat
All the world was bright as he held my hand that night
And I heard him say please don't ever go away
So he held me in my arms and told me of my many charms
He kissed me while the fiddles played the Bonaparte's Retreat

All the world was bright...
