

Candy Kisses

Kitty Wells

Candy kisses, wrapped in paper
Mean more to you, than any of mine
Candy kisses, wrapped in paper
You'd rather have them, any old time

You don't mean it
When you whisper those, sweet-love words in my ear
Candy kisses wrapped in paper
Mean more to you, than mine do, dear

I build a castle out of dreams, dear
I thought that you were building one too
Now, my castles, all have fallen
And I am left alone and blue

Once my heart was filled with gladness
Now, there's sadness, only tears
Candy kisses wrapped in paper
Mean more to you, than mine do, dear
