

Dancing With A Stranger

Kitty Wells

While you're dancing with a stranger there where the other cheaters hide
Oh what happened to us darling for mI know my place is by your side
I hate her eyes and laughing red lips those red lips that kissed away my cry
And I hate the life that you're living for I know my place is by your side
So why you are dancing with a stranger and why have you cheated me and lied
Now you have left me for this stranger and she's in my place by your side
So why you are dancing...
