

It's All Over (but The Crying)

Kitty Wells

You said you loved me and I gave my heart to you
And foolish me I dreamed of things to come
Like wedding ring a home and some children too
Then she set out to win you and won.

It's all over but the crying
You didn't have to tell me I knew
It's all over but the crying
And if I can start then maybe I'll forget you...
