

Repenting

Kitty Wells

Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
Those few careless hours
That never should have been
I'm begging you to let me make command

Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
I promise never do you wrong again
On my knees, I'm asking your forgiveness

Please heed a humble heart laid at your feet
Too late I know a love like yours is different
It's all I need to make my life complete

Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
I'll never make the same mistakes again
On my knees I'm asking your forgiveness
