

Yo, yo what's up yo?
Yo, what's up man?
Yo, y'all are GRITS right?--yeah man
Yo, I-I want to get into this gospel rap thing man.
Aw, sh man it's a task
Yo I was just wonderin' if I could give you this rhyme I wrote Go ahead man, I aint hatin'. Go ahead yo

It's all about me, me, and did I mention me I'm the dopest rapper in the gospel rap industry
I kill more white rappers than snipers
I'm the one they call to get the crowd hyper Yo, all y'all cats need to retire
With your played out raps, I'm the roughest and toughest I love the spotlight yo you better make sure this mike sounds right or I'll charge you double on this honorarium Don't ask me to speak words of encouragement cause yo I got the dopest skill s
Don't ask me to do what God wills, It's all about keepin' it real and makin' sure I get me a fat type of record deal
Give the crowd something they can feel Toss God a bone every once in a while, have a Coke and a smile Yo, I been doin' this a long while, man, like two months even So what if I look like a heathen, I can still kill the ruckus demon
I got all the girls fiendin' , I put emcee back into emceeing Yo God and hip-hop versus the god of hip-hop I believe in I'm acheivin' what I want. These skills is what I flaunt Yo you caint get me so tell me what you got.
Man, I live and die for the god of hip-hop, I mean God and hip-hop
So y'all fools need to stop

This is a message to you rap infants, showin' faces in the places where we blessin' at Tryin' to battle, got respect for your skills but skill alone dont get you p rops
It takes integrity, when rappin' for Christ on microphones

Who's this Babylon emcee with the audacity, approaching me as if I got a stamp of approval for his fallacy I hear you talkin' 'bout yourself and claim you keep it real but I aint feelin' it I'm feelin' to your flesh but only kill the little light so dimly shinin'
I question why you rhymin',
Is ministry in mind and does God direct your timin'?
or do you even put it in to put it out? What you about?
Do you use Him as a jewel well then your crown and you clout your time will tell In life He must prevail, a living example is needed to rap it well
You see the ministry begins theminute you step up in from the stage Is your character the essence of the life you hear in the pages of His very Word
Cause if not face His rage.
You aint understandin' He demands a higher standard Stayin' true to hip-hop caint be found in His Commandments Take notice because the atmosphere is about to get tense wanna find relatin' truth to some gone take it offense young cats, heed the message of this elder emcee who got responsibility to let you know what kind of bilities to key but it seems that some of y'all aint caught the vision as we
