200 lbs. clocking in at six foot two
You can catch me watching Veggie Tales sipping Mountain Dew
Spending too much money at the mall and Gadzooks
Now i'm rolling throught McDonald's I'm getting a number two
But I know they gonna act rude and mess up my food
Here's your cheeseburger and plus you coke too
Ha ha thanks a lot but where's my fries at fool?
I tried to grow a mullet way back in high school
I was like "Now everybody gonna think that I'm cool
And the girls are gonna say I'm cuter than you Cruise"
Bit instead they laugh at me like the Sponge Bob dude
Looking back I don't know just how I made it through Cause nowadays kids be like "KJ rocks dued"
My name is KJ...everybody stay tuned

It's not fifty two it don't stand for King James
I wated too long now so let me explain
John 6:9 let me break it down plain
Five loaves two fishes is what a boy gave
So I took what I had and I just did the same
Put all I had in His hands and I just walked away
I said Lord it's all Yours You can have the whole thing
I know what I bring it might sound a little strange
But I'm not in it just for this money or the fame
And I'm still just the same ain't nothing ever changed
I still driver a mini van and naw I ain't ashamed
Sipping Lipton Iced Tea dipping switching lanes
Like an insane soccer mom about to hit the game
Yelling at lame drivers saying "Get out of the way"
