KJ-52

Man yall should know who I am
I stay thugged out rolling out in my mini van
On my ten inch rims bugging out with a little tan
While I'm letting them spin Mt. Dew can in my hand
Man I'm iced out like what...
Well I was iced out when the ice fell out the cup
Well I can't help it I almost ran into a truck
And the ice all melted and mini van got stuck
But it's cool I let my speakers bump
Dude I got five inch woofers in the trunk
And I can still make the party people get up and jump

Now I'm not a hoodlum flashy or icy

At the dentist the only time I get flossy
See all I really got is just Christ in me
Who precisely breathed life in me
And just guides me daily and nightly
And never fails me cuz he holds tightly
And I know its just to sight to see
It don't seem right don't even seem right to me
But all it just means is God gets the glory
In the end that's all I'm living for end of story
