

Losing U

Klingande

Warm coffee and a cigarette
We would smoke the last one
In my twin sized bed
This moment feels safe and sound
Though we know the storm is coming
To take us down

And I know it's just beginning
For us in this place before
No one told us it was easy
Or anything at all

If we need to say goodbye, I do
If staying here
Could save your life, I would
I will make you happy
There is nothing I won't do
So I'm losing you

(If staying here
Could save your life, I would)

Once and forever we close this door
The one that leads to heaven, on the second floor

Stay with me till the morning come
'Cause all I ever wanted
Was to show you the sun

If we need to say goodbye, I do
If staying here
Could save your life, I would
I will make you happy
There is nothing I won't do
So I'm losing you

(If staying here
Could save your life, could save your life I would)
So I'm losing you
(Could save your life, could save your life I would)
