

Day of Light

KMFDM

Perniciousness of vagaries
Misapprehension by decree
Obstinate monotony
The day of light is calling me
Bitter hearts and murky dreams
Ill-fated men of mystery
Bewildered by this brilliancy
Like sylphs amongst the shrubberies
Misery is manifold
This wretched world we call our home
Agonies through ecstasy
The sordid plight of visionaries
Perniciousness of vagaries
Such obstinate monotony
With apostolic apathy
Still yearning for ascendancy

Ascendancy
From this misery
Ascendancy
From this disease

Perniciousness of vagaries
Misapprehension by decree
Obstinate monotony
Bitter hearts and murky dreams
Bewildered by the brilliancy
Ill-fated men of mystery
Like sylphs amongst the shrubbery
Misery is manifold
This wretched world we call our home
Agony from ecstasy
The sordid plight of visionaries

Bitter hearts and murky dreams
Such obstinate monotony
Apostolic apathy
Yearning for ascendancy
Depleted of my faculties
In this epoch of disease
Beleaguered by your memory
The day of light is calling me
Misapprehension by decree
Ill-fated men of mystery
Agony through ecstasy
The sordid plight of visionaries
In this epoch of disease
Still yearning for ascendancy

Day of light dawning on me, Lift me up so I can see

The day of light is calling me

Day of light

The day of light is calling me

The day of light is calling me
