When I have to die I want to strangle myself in your black hair When I have to die I want to suffocate between your sweet breas ts

When I have to die I want to be blinded by your brown eyes When I have to die I want to cut my veins on your lips

I have not yet ruled enough My hands in chains The break, the hole in the wall

When I have to die I want to starve in your lap When I have to die I want to burn in your bed

When I have to die I want to drown in your heat When I have to die I want to be poisoned by your blood

When I have to die I want to melt away from your kiss And then when I'm dead, bury me close to your heart
