

Salvation

KMFDM

I want to feel it, hold it in my hands
I want to see it with eyes of innocence
I want to hear it, touch it with my soul
Make me believe in the unbelievable

This is the Fail Safe, Point of No Return
Abandon everything, our bridges have been burned
Eyes wide shut, succumbing to free fall
Now, I believe in the unbelievable.

Salvation come to me! Hallelujah!
Salvation deliver me to the alter of my destiny!
Salvation come to me, grant me immortality!

That's the way of the world
What are you waiting for?
She has to be loved
Everybody needs somebody
Everybody needs love!

Salvation come to me! Hallelujah!
Salvation deliver me to the alter of my destiny!
Salvation come to me, grant me immortality!
