

Trust No One

Knuckledust

Its dog eat dog on the fucking streets again, brother kills brother, when will it fuckign end? You break a sweat trying to save yourself from the scum, you just can't trust no one. Now is your time, your time to die, unless you stand strong and wave your fears goodbye. You'll take a knife or take a bullet, either way you'll be dead in the fucking end. You fucking scum, I'll live my whole life here, free from hatred and fear. You fucking scum, it's your death that I wish for sometims this isn't enough.
