Unbreakable

Knuckledust

Struggle on day by day to live my life in peace Convicted to do what's right and turn the other cheek Judged for living my own way and this will never cease Your ignorance will not prevail Cast down your future's bleak

Unbreakable I cannot be deterred Unbreakable No matter what you do Unbreakable Your torment will not be heard Unbreakable I will forever say Fuck you

Brandishing your hate like a sabre Trying to intimidate Try to force a reaction but I will refuse Your whole existence Setting out to destroy what we create But we'll hold on, I won't crack, I won't lose

I will forever say fuck you Can't split this spirit from my soul I will forever say fuck you Pain's all that you're owed

Fighting to keep my sanity In a world of decayed humanity
