

Domination Final

Koffin Kats

There's something to say about passion and the heart.
Friend you don't know a thing and you will never win.
I came here to put you in the ground.
Domination final.
Vengeance all I feel.
A lesson is to be learned.
Destruction of the weak.
The stampede your running with your trample by the heard.
How can you live knowing what you've done.
You can try to hide but not from me son.
