

Now More Than Ever

Koffin Kats

And suddenly your awake.
Your in the same rotten place.
And all ya really want to do is break out.
But your too weak and you just stay down.
And are ya ever gonna change your direction or keep moving south
And now more then ever your wrong.
I cant believe what you do.
You rob your family and crew
Because you thing that they all owe you some how.
And your headed for a beat down.
And are ya ever gonna change your direction or keep moving south.
Becoming so worthless you should be put down.
A sad little bastard afraid of the world.
And now more then ever your wrong.
