

Our Faded Funeral

Koffin Kats

Nobody came to our funeral today
They buried us quick in the snow and the rain
In the same clothes that we wore on the streets
Time has faded us from memory

Out of sight
Out of mind
Always knew our day would die
We came from nothing our fate has returned
We shined for a moment
But proved to be worthless

Remember the days we never felt cold
Always had shelter from the rain and the snow
Our voices were heard when we wanted to speak
One short moment from victory
