

Contagious Smile

Kolohe Kai

You cant tell that nobody knows that when I see you girl my heart goes oh oh oh oh
'Cause its about to hit the punch line
Oh oh oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh oh oh
When I see you smile, my heart it goes Oh oh oh oh oh

Its not fair its not right not to see your pretty face in sight
Its not right its not fair to not see it anywhere
Just a glimpse of you does give me such a heart felt buzz

'Cause your beauty is pure and sometimes its hard to endure
My hearts afflicted 'cause I'm so addicted to your smile (your smile)
Just one look was all it took to keep me smiling for awhile

'Cause your smile is contagious it fills my hearts pages with love, yes it does
And your beauty is endless it leaves defenseless to you and that contagious smile of yours oh oh oh oh oh oh, ooooh

Please don't hide whats inside let the whole world see that smile so pure Its a possibi, its a possibility baby dear its so clear what you've done to me Your the sweetest girl now that's a guarantee its such a pleasure to just see a measure of its true, its true Positive is just your style you're cheering up people within a mile of you

'Cause your smile is contagious it fills my hearts pages with love, yes it does
And your beauty is endless it leaves defenseless to you and that contagious smile of yours oh oh oh oh oh oh, yeah oh oh oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh oh oh when I see your smile my heart it goes oh oh oh oh oh

You cant tell that no body knows
that when I see you girl my heart goes oh oh oh oh
'Cause its about to hit the punch line

You cant tell that no body knows
that when I see you girl my heart goes oh oh oh oh
'Cause its about to hit the punch line
