

The Lighthouse

Kolohe Kai

Im headed for the storm dont wanna drift that way Im lost at sea somethings got in me everyday but you cant stop me from coming back home cause im sick and tired of being alone from my baby my loving baby

Drifting all so far but the only reason that I know where you are is the light house mmmmm the loving lighthouse and i drifting everyday
but the only reason that I know im back your way is the lighthouse mmmmm the loving lighthouse

I feel yourselves with laughter I know nothing to move you faster I know you got a broken compass and you got no map but thats okay all you need is this life from the shore tell you now baby I left my door still open we both hoping

Ooh you drifting oh so far

To be continued lols sorry
