We all live on an idle TV show Get turned on by sex on the radio Yea it's low

Now she walks and talks like everybody else Loses control and she ends up in a motel Yea it hurts like hell

And all our secrets go
Out the window
And all the world knows now

And love is always out of reach
It's always out of reach
It's always out of reach
But I never want to stop trying, no

Imitation slave the stoner's stuck in bed And while off camera, he says fuck protest No he's gotta get some rest.

Out the window
And all the world knows now

And love is always out of reach
It's always out of reach
It's always out of reach
But I never want to stop trying, no
