Fear Is a Place to Live

I feel you all around me Your voice, it surrounds me You keep telling me what I want to hear

You're beautiful, so talented, I need you, we got a thing You ever need something I'll be right there

Fear is a place to live Rip off the mask from your head Show me the real face that you hide

I see you from a mile away Keep staring, acting like you gotta say

You're beautiful, so talented, I need you, we got a thing You ever need something I'll be right here

Fear is a place to live Rip off the mask from your head Show me the real face that you hide

Fake ass people surround me They're always nice to begin Digging their claws

Fake ass people surround me Digging their claws right in me They're always nice to begin but I always get fucked in the end

Fake ass people surround me Digging their claws right in me They're always nice to begin but I always get fucked in the end I always get fucked in the end

Fear is a place to live Rip off the mask from your head Show me the real face that you hide

FAKE ASS, FAKE ASS

Fear is a place to live Rip off the mask from your head Show me the real face that you hide
