

Love Song

Korn

Mother
You're holding my heart, screaming
Motherfucker
They left me broken, bleeding

Son of
The man you loved and left for
The son of a bitch
Who tried to show me death's door

Everything's eliminated
Everything is dedicated
My belief destroyed my hated?
Never get what's overrated

Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here

As in
Obituaries rain down
It's okay
We're lying naked face down

Wasn't it decapitated?
Can you see me fascinated?
You're the only thing I've damaged
What you get to be mismanaged

Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here

Dying here
Dying here
Dying here

Don't bring me daffodils
Bring a bouquet of pills
See some geranium
Cracked to the cranium

Protect me when you can
Respect me when I am
Dying

Love song for the dear departed
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound
Lying here

Love song for the dear departed
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound
Lying here
I'm dying here
