Mother You're holding my heart, screaming Motherfucker They left me broken, bleeding

Son of
The man you loved and left for
The son of a bitch
Who tried to show me death's door

Everything's eliminated Everything is dedicated My belief destroyed my hated? Never get what's overrated

Love song for the dear departed Head stone for the broken hearted Arms to kill Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound One sip of the blood that I found Lying here I'm dying here

As in Obituaries rain down It's okay We're lying naked face down

Wasn't it decapitated?
Can you see me fascinated?
You're the only thing I've damaged
What you get to be mismanaged

Love song for the dear departed Head stone for the broken hearted Arms to kill Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound One sip of the blood that I found Lying here I'm dying here

Dying here Dying here Dying here

Don't bring me daffodils Bring a bouquet of pills See some geranium Cracked to the cranium

Protect me when you can Respect me when I am Dying Love song for the dear departed Head stone for the broken hearted Arms to kill Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound One sip of the blood that I found Lying here I'm dying here

Love song for the dear departed Head stone for the broken hearted Arms to kill Or flowers to steal

Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here
