Paranoid and Aroused

Help me, I am breaking And my heart is barely beating And the demons they are creeping around. Take me, I am sinking And my clothes are barely breathing As the angels put me into the ground.

And everybody's peeking. No one makes a sound. The shadows are deceiving. Paranoid and aroused.

Slam me, I am shaking And my guts are really aching And the demons, they're laughing out loud. Spare me, I am fading And my will is discipating As the angels put me into the ground.

And everybody's peeking. No one makes a sound. The shadows are deceiving. Paranoid and aroused.

My mind is debating These creatures I'm making. This medicines sedating The power embracing. The fall I'm facing. My feelings I'm hating. Reality is failing. This is degrading.

And everybody's peeking. No one makes a sound. The shadows are deceiving. Paranoid and aroused.

The fall I'm facing. My feelings I'm hating. Reality is failing. This is degrading.
