Proud

Must you keep looking at me before you looked the other way. Must you keep glaring at me I know you look inside, and see what you made.

You took no pride in me but now I'm your everything it's finding out ya own me not all of your gloating.

Must you keep looking at me. Now you see what I am. Trust, I knew what it was. I don't forget things, thinking I'm nothing.

You took no pride in me but now I'm your everything it's finding out ya own(owe?) me not all of your gloating.

Pride of me No Pride Why?

Must you keep looking at me Before you looked the other way Trust, I knew what it was I don't forget things, look what you've made.

You took no pride in me but now I'm your everything it's finding out ya own(owe?) me not all of your gloating
