

Sanctuary

Korn

A slap in the face
It is endowed.
The light of my life
is put out somehow.

I'm lying in pieces of
emotions you control.
You're feeling my sympathy
the lie unfolds.

Feeling this hostility, I pray.
Begging, make this evil go away.
Conveying the things I only fear.
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears.

The lines that I traced around the scars they swell.
In plain with a sedative
to numb this spell.
I'm lying in pieces of
emotions you control.
You're feeling my sympathy
the lie unfolds.

Feeling this hostility, I pray.
Begging, make this evil go away.
Conveying the things I only fear.
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears.

Feeling animosity
when no one else is around.
Blindly I scream into the air.
Eating my heart off the ground.

Feeling this hostility, I pray.
Begging, make this evil go away.
Conveying the things I only fear.
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears.
