

Buried alive
suffering day by day
The black forces in your own hell's throat Death's shout
paralyses your sense Pleasure in suffering cries out for blood

Fear
From side to side
Pain
crossing in pur minds
Evil
Was born in the human brain
A dream?
No way

Red lights
like hearts in pain
black sun
burning in your eyes Maniac life
can't see the great problems Horror and terror determining the world

Fear
From side to side
Pain
crossing in pur minds
Evil
Was born in the human brain
A dream?
No way

Straw men Straw minds crossed way
Tied up with no way out
No expression
No liberty
blocked feelings in the Death industry

Fear
From side to side
Pain
crossing in pur minds
Evil
Was born in the human brain
A dream?
No way
