Kosheen

The road is closing in
And you can cross the floor
The music drives you
Sends you climbing walls
The tears of recollection
Are left across your face there are some lies you put there and some you arrange

(CHORUS:)

Just don't wanna come over
Can't seem to love one another
You wanna run and take cover
Your silence hides you from the inside

(END CHORUS)

CHORUS

You'd better get awake now
It's time to stand up tall
i can touch you so far behind walls
And see the sun is rising
In an almost perfect sky
See how far we travel and how hard we try
