

Spies

Kosheen

The sake of it all turning me in, snapping my bones and stripping my skin, shutting my doors and kicking it in,
back to the end and where to begin?

Spies

I've got my spies all over town

All tell me lies!

We're gonna catch you around

Spies

Twisting my tongue and taking my days, giving me something second rate, holding me back from the venom in veins, second class, second place.
