

Agony

KOTOKO & ㄣㄣㄣㄣ

The dream that would come true someday Only becomes a faint, un heard mutter Wandering while inside the light of the night Soon those eyes will open if it's fate At least, yes, only now...

Feeling down after it didn't happen, I hang my head inside the night wind Tears Moonlight Overflowing from my palm What do you want? My lips uttered in the darkness

That smiling face which pierced my heart when we met I really w ant to protect it within the agonizing, crushing pain I had emb raced our fleeting promise

Just to be able to be close to you Just to be able to be with y ou at the same time Even if the distant memories are making me warm by the sadness it brings me with Within the ever revolving thoughts Will our peaceful end come? This repeating question d ances in the heavens And changes into the light of dawn's sky

Everything is an illusion, they're gone as soon as they appear My fingers that dispose my evil thoughts are entangled with a c olourless chain Which loneliness braided as much as I struggle

My heels are like cutting through the wind It's too cold now "I t's because you're here" But I can't let go of the other words that had fallen into darkness

Just taking a breath Just to feel the same pain Little by littl e, I finally realised Of this love that gathers happiness Becau se in the eyes that rests on my frozen shoulders I have found t he one I want to protect At the next dawn the fragments rusted with regret which I caught Could turn into light

Just to touch each other, just to think of that happiness Welli ng up inside Even if we parted for a moment, becoming a bond th at will never vanish

Just to be close to you Just to be with you at the same time Ev en if the distant memories are making me warm by the sadness it brings me with If the guidance within these etched symbols Eve r fails again The moment we meet again shall bypass the memorie s of a thousand years And change into light
