Some like sunshine some like rain, some like pleasure and some like pain, so me like peace and some like

You see i can see light in the strangest ways, on the darkest nights and the coldest days, and im amazed that some how that i can keep smilin, i can hear music in the depths of sile nce, i can find peace in the middle of violence and i can be calm when i should be wild and i can find ho pe when there is despare and i dont feel alone when theres noone there.

Some like sunshine some like rain, some like pleasure and some like pain, so

war, and some don't even know what there fightin for what your fightin for?
Do you ever really know what your fighting for? what your fightin for?
