Kottonmouth Kings

(Life is good you know, plant your seed and watch it grow, ya)
One seed two seed 3,4, and 5.
How many of these seeds can they keep alive so I'm singin (singin)

Here in my garden (here in my garden)
I'm harvesting everything with love
and it gets faster now
I'm planting my garden (planting my garden)
harvesting everything with love
the sun keeps shining down

One seed two seed 3,4, and 5.
How many of these seeds can they keep alive and so I'm singin (singin) do delong the fact my gardens sacred Ain't nobody gonna come and rape it ain't nobody gonna come and take it
Its my whole life
Love and passion consumes the reaction now feed them the feeling that grow them so high we've been baby the blossoms partaking what's awesome and spread out the world that's no lie

I'm harvesting everything with love
and it gets faster now
I'm planting my garden (planting my garden)
harvesting everything with love
the sun keeps shinning down

Its harvest time the moon was shine pure magic in the air the universe so miracle like drum sticks on a snare the cycling the seasons change the healing that repairs
We pass around the sacred pipe then hold it in the air, we blow the smoke in 4 directions giving thanks each time then nothing can reward the gods like fruit at harvest time so plant your seeds and love the soil and let water it each day and live your life with pure intention good things will come your way (so they say)

Here in my garden (here in my garden)
I'm harvesting everything with love
and it gets faster now

I'm planting my garden (planting my garden)
harvesting everything with love
