

Tears, Hope and Hate

Krabathor

your leave your hands along your body you wanna take your pain out of your hands to arrange everything by only motion
...nothing so fast

you want what you don't have you scream without response you cry without tears you fear without fear

to take a breath again to give a change to nothing and nobody you must hurt? do you want it?
I think it's a law of life what I'll do will be right I'll believe the voices of my heart no other way... don't be scared all will end for your pleasure time is too fast it makes corpses of us by growing old you have to do something in time no! I must wait - I'm even scared!

...and pleasure!!!
