Showroom Dummies

Kraftwerk

We are standing here Exposing ourselves

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies

We're being watched and we feel our pulse

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies

We look around and change our pose

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies

We start to move And we break the glass

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies

We step out And take a walk through the city

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies

We go into a club And there we start to dance

We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies We are showroom dummies
