

Paralysis

Krampus

On last breath
Is what I ask before
I get destroyed
Just one last time
To live a moment of ease

I'm broken
By my own will to succeed in life
I feel like crushed
By my dissatisfaction
For everything that I've done

No one can hear me scream
Paralyzed
In a dream
I can't call to mind
The woe in me
And I can't see the road
Until the end

Just another confession
Cause I forgot
How to enjoy this life
Drowning in my obsession again
Tired of being not enough for me

Just one last breath
Is what I ask before I get destroyed
Just one last time
To live a moment of ease

No one can hear me scream
Paralyzed
In a dream
I can't call to mind
The woe in me
And I can't see the road
Until the end

Just one last breath
Is what I ask before I get destroyed
Just one last time
To live a moment of ease
Just one last breath

For me
Never regret
Never forget
Don't be the one to fucking drop dead
Never regret
Never forget
Don't be the one to fucking drop dead
