

Children of a Lesser God

Kreator

And as we look into the past watching them come forth from their path
What once was glorious could not last
For children of a lesser god

Children of a lesser god

And so destruction lingers on Their visions laid their souls to rot
The pain has never been so strong
For children of a lesser god

Children of a lesser god

Face the end of all mankind
Face the fear that's on your mind
Feel the fire, feel the flames
From now on the things will never be the same

Children of a lesser god
