

Passion

Kreesha Turner

I got a passion, it's burning away
And if you plan to come and claim it
Hope you called all your friends
'Cuz baby you got a long road ahead full of troubles
Consider this a warning, ain't gonna say it again

'Cuz baby I done come too far to get here and lose
And I done paid a million sumpting dollars in dues
So if you don't believe me, or just feelin' breezy
Won't you come through and take a walk in my shoes

And see that I got a Passion
And it's deeper than yours
Passion, and I'ma use it to score
I got Passion deep in my soul
Victory is mine, so let the trumpets blow.

I got a Passion to get what I want
And my determination keeps me patient and strong
But you see I've been waiting, and waiting too long
Victory is meant for me, and you're gonna see I'm a star

'Cuz baby I done come too far to get here and fail
Forty hours counting dollars ain't been suiting too well
So if you wanna try me, then go ahead and try me
Cuz soon your eyes'll see and it won't be hard to tell

That baby I got a Passion
And it's deeper than yours
Passion, and I'ma use it to score
I got Passion deep in my soul
Victory is mine, so let the trumpets blow.

I got a Passion and it's deeper than yours
Passion, and I'ma use it to score
I got Passion deep in my soul
Victory is mine, so let the trumpets blow.

Won't you come and take a look in my eyes
See that I've got the heart to make my dreams come to life
Won't you come and take a walk in my shoes
Ain't no slacking, no distractions, got no time to lose

Won't you come and take a look in my eyes
See that I've got the heart to make my dreams come to life (Hey)
Won't you come and take a walk in my shoes
Ain't no slacking, time for action, I ain't come here to lose

I got a Passion and it's deeper than yours
Passion, and I'ma use it to score
I got Passion deep in my soul
Victory is mine, so let the trumpets blow.

I got a Passion and it's deeper than yours
Passion, and I'ma use it to score
I got Passion deep in my soul
Victory is mine, so let the trumpets blow.
