

Shattered

Kreesha Turner

We had a good love
But that moment has passed
When your young no one tells you Something's are too good to last
My friends think I'm crazy
The way that I carry on Cause when they ask me about you
I tell them I've learned to move on
But when I think of you I feel broken
Holding on to pieces of words left unspoken

And... Ooh whoo (ooh whoo) I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face oh whoo (ooh whoo) I'm so shattered Cause I can't stop missing the one thing that I can't replace y ea...

Now I don't need nobody I'm independent and strong (yea...)
And if the choir stops singing (oooh...)
I'll just keep singing my song
But when I think of you I feel broken (yea...)
Holding on to pieces of words left unspoken

And... Ooh whoo (ooh whoo) I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face
Ooh whooo (ooh whoo) I'm so shattered
Cause I can't stop missing the one thing that I can't replace

I still recall the tragedy, of how you fell away from me
And I must confess my hearts still a mess even though I'm stronger than,
I used to be, it never ends
The need to be with you cause baby I miss you

And... Ooh whoo (ooh whoo) I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face
Ooh whooo (ooh whoo) I'm so shattered
Cause I can't stop missing the one thing that I can't replace
I'm shattered...(yea...)
Ooh whoo, I'm so shattered
Cause I cant stop missing the one thing that I can't replace
