

Endure the Night

Kreyson

The setting sun is quickly fading,
Shadows stretch across the ground,
The moon is dark, and the stars are hidden,
Darkness falling all around.

In the dark, fell beasts are stirring,
Growing bolder in the night,
Calling to you to give in to them,
Give up your soul, give up the light.

Through it seems like the dark
Is gonna last forever,
Jesus is Lord of Light,
You'll hear him calling:

Endure the night, dawn's on the way.
The day is coming, when it comes
You will see it's worth the waiting.

Just believe: the light's all around,
Look with your heart and not your eyes.
In the end darkness has to give way,
So don't believe the devil's lies.

Through it seems like the dark
Is gonna last forever,
Jesus is Lord of Light,
You'll hear him calling:

Endure the night, dawn's on the way.
The day is coming, when it comes
You will see it's worth the waiting.

Endure the night, endure the darkness,
The day is dawning,
Sunrise will come, you will see.
Just endure till the dawn,
Don't give up, don't give in,
The sun's on the way.
