

Judgement Day

Kreyson

A blazing light like fire from the sky.
Shatters the night with a victorious cry.
Angels from heaven,
descending all around,
A holy army landing, moving out.

Just as the sages long ago foretold,
Just as the prophets prophesied of old,
Just as He said, the heavens will be opened.
Just as you read, the time has come.

Oh, Kreyson - flights of angels.
Oh, Judgement Day - light forever.

Michael and angels of light
Pressing on with fiery eyes.
Satan, the prince of death and hell,
Is finally felled, no more to rise.

Demons of night try to escape them,
But in the end there's nowhere to run.
Jesus the King returns in glory,
Coming again to rule forever.

Just as He said, the heavens will be opened.
Just as you read, the time has come.

Oh, Kreyson - flights of angels.
Oh, Judgement Day - light forever.
