The Lord Will Come

Kreyson

Kings of the nations, remember: No kingdom here lasts forever.

There is the King who is higher, He'll judge all your works with holy fire.

Come, come on And bow before him. Come, sooner or later, You will behold him in all his glory.

The Lord will come in judgement, And we will all answer to him.

The Lord will come....

The Lord will come....

The Lord will come, And all will bow.

The Lord will come, And all will bow.
