

Warrior Angel

Kreyson

The hosts of heaven,
The hordes of hell
Are locked in battle,
And your heart is the battlefield.
The war is raging all around,
You can't escape it
You cannot see me,
But I'm your warrior angel.

You never notice,
But every day
You are surrounded
By soldier of the light and dark.
The fight is for your soul,
We battle every day.
But only you
Can decide which side will win you.

Soldiers of light,
Slaves of darkness,
Both want your heart
Tell me which side you are on.

The war goes on around you.
Only you can decide
But I can defend you
For I'm your warrior angel.

Soldiers of light,
Slaves of darkness,
Both want your heart.
tell me which side you are on.

Angel of light,
I fight for your soul.
Angel of light,
Turn to the fight.
