

Send Me All Your Angels

Kris Allen

What am I gonna do tonight
When I'm one step closer to the other side
It's easy to pretend
Tryin' hard not to fade away
But the world's got me feeling so out of place
How will all this end?
It's so hard to say

Send me all your angels tonight
I'm barely hanging on the edge of lonely
Trying to turn this all around before I
Hit the ground and end up face down
Send me all your angels, now

Everyday, gotta face the fact that
I'm trying to reason with the demons on my back
And I'm hoping to hold on
Don't wanna make friends tonight
With the faces, with the faces
Not this time
When will all this end?
Just give me a sign

Send me all your angels tonight
I'm barely hanging on the edge of lonely
Trying to turn this all around before I
Hit the ground and end up face down
Send me all your angels, now

Better days are sure to come
I don't wanna come undone
So show me what I'm living for, yeah

Send me all your angels tonight
I'm barely hanging on the edge of lonely
Trying to turn this all around before I
Hit the ground and end up face down
Send me all your angels, now
Send me all your angels now
Send me all your angels, now
Oh, ooh

What am I gonna do tonight
When I'm one step closer to the other side
