

Young Love ("Paul Simon")

Kris Allen

I won't be the one that makes you question all your fate
And I won't be the one that turns that crooked smile straight
I will stand beside you till my days are done
It's funny how I knew what love was, at so young
And it goes like
And it goes like

I won't be the one that takes the wind out of your sail
And I won't be the one that tells your life is not a fairytale
So tell me all your dreams and I'll make them come true, yeah
It's funny living life the way that lovers do, oh yeah
And it goes like

Everything little thing that you do makes me say yey, yey, yeh
(x8)
Hmm, say yey, yey, yey
Say yey, yey
Come on say yey, yey, yey
Say yey, yey
You make me wanna say yey (x3)
You make me wanna say yey, yey, yey
