

Love Don't Live Here Anymore

Kris Kristofferson

Perfect strangers sitting down face to face
Like we've never met before
Nothing's left between us
But the space between us
Love don't live here anymore

Faded photographs; dusty dreams
Lying scattered on the floor
Nothing's here to bind us
To the years behind us
Love don't live here anymore

Never sharin' nothin'
We don't care
I got nothin' close to nothin' you'd care to hear

Nail the shutters down; pull the shades
Hang a sign upon the door
There's no use pretending
There's no happy ending
Love don't live here anymore.
