

The Race

Kris Kristofferson

The race is harder than arithmetic some will say it can't be won so it gets harder when your shoes are snake (Not sure of this l yric)
but I had set my mind to run.

but it was harder than I bargined for broken dreams at every turn I had hard enough to almost make it through and a lesson yet to learn.

I slipped at fell before the finish line just when it seemed I couldn't loose I can fall anytime you want me too you are the shit beneath my shoe.
