

Agonize the Ending

Krisiun

The church preaches disgrace to it's believers illusions, morbid hopes miserables abort miserables Mankind eats shit of their fake gods continous suffering of an inferior race pride of being nothing to contemplate lies men who burn their flag the hunger for the process of impunity Armies from the darkness march above our heads damned are the souls born here ripped, burned and reduced to dust like children like a needle preforates an embryo to be born and to die at sidewalk
a nation that believes in fake laws To survive with the high society wishes power, hunger, corruption, brothers reject brothers forgotten lives
raped virgin saints spit and rotten embryos Parents kill their sons opression, fear, maximum violence blind justice, a territory that dies little by little there ain't enought place for so many corps
