

Contradictions of Decay

Krisiun

There's no true gain
When there's no war and pain.
There's no victorious infiltration
Without bloodspill and pillage.
There's no sworn savior in shades death and sacrilege
There's no land of paradise where lambs of God are sodomized.
Salvation is deception contradictions of decay
Exterminate procreate execution of those who pray.
Humiliation of deception degradation of creation
All martyrs died in vain contradictions of decay.
Burning heresies will burn holy prophecies
Disease and pestilence will infest the promised land.
The scum divine of a pervert mother sister.
Hollow holy ground of skeletons profane,
Hollow holy ground of hidden victims of perversion.
There's no true gain
When there's no war and pain.
There's no victorious infiltration
Without bloodspill and pillage.
